Editorial Note

I am delighted to announce that ACM Transactions on Storage is now being indexed by Thomson-Reuters through the Science Citation Index Expanded (SciSearch), Journal Citation Reports/Science Edition, Current Contents/Engineering Computing and Technology. This is in recognition of the quality of the articles appearing in Transactions on Storage, and I would like to extend my gratitude and appreciation to all of authors who have made this possible. As the old adage says, “A rising tide raises all boats.” The increased visibility of Transactions on Storage increases the impact of your article and will attract even higher quality articles to our journal.

I want to again thank all of the authors who have made this possible, and express my hope that the growing impact of Transactions on Storage will continue. Computer Science is now a mature discipline, and the importance of journal publication is increasing. By sending your best work to Transactions on Storage, you contribute to the field and to the standing of this journal.
